1. The "Prankster" Energy

April starts with April Fools' Day, the one day of the year where you're legally allowed (okay, socially allowed) to be a bit of a nuisance. Whether it's a classic "your shoes are untied" or a complex office prank, the vibe is lighthearted and mischievous from day one.

2. Nature's Glow-Up

- Cherry Blossoms: From DC to Tokyo, these pink clouds are at their peak.
- The "Pink Moon": The full moon in April is named after the wild ground phlox (a pink flower) that starts to bloom now.
- Baby Animals: It is peak season for ducklings, lambs, and fawns. Basically, the world gets 200% cuter.

3. Foodie Holidays

- If you need an excuse to eat, April provides plenty of specific "National Days":
 - | Date | Celebration |
 - April 5 | Deep Dish Pizza Day
 - April 12 | Grilled Cheese Sandwich Day
 - April 26 | National Pretzel Day

What do you call a grizzly bear caught in an April shower? A drizzly bear.

What monster plays the most April Fools' pranks? Prank-enstein.

What did the summer say to the spring? "Help! I'm about to fall!"

The man who I hated

The door was unlocked, so I went inside. I entered the building where I work. It was 6,30 and I was always the first to arrive. Who else was coming?

When I was walking to my room to start work, I felt someone at my back. When I looked back, I saw a beautiful guy. He had black hair and had tattoos on one of his arms. I knew very well who he was - the person who I hated more than any other thing. He walked in my direction and said I shouldn't arrive at that time. I just ignored him and started work.

It was 6.50 and he hadn't stopped looking at me. The other people arrived and he didn't stop looking!

Did he need help? I didn't know.

When I finished work, he came to me and said: "I think I love you."

Becoming an influencer nowadays is a goal and a dream for most of the younger generations. Gen Alpha has grown up with screens in their hands since birth and that changes their perspective of work and hobbies.

Firstly, becoming an influencer is not as easy as most people believe, it requires a lot of effort, determination and thoughtful decisions. A really strong skill necessary to be a successful influencer is finding inspiration. However, finding it might not be easy sometimes, but an influencer needs to always have a new idea for a video. In times of lack of inspiration, this job can become really hard.

Secondly, if the goal is to be an influencer as a full-time job it is extremely important to be really well-known. I would say that becoming famous is very relative because it can depend on time, age, interests or even context. For example, there were a group of famous tiktokers around the pandemic, is normal for younger or older people not to remember them. In my opinion, influencers are only famous for a certain group of people.

Finally, a strong disadvantage of being an influencer is the strong hate that comes with it. A lot of young influences can get hundreds of hate comments per day, and it affects their mental health.

In conclusion, I think being a social media influencer has the ability to start a strong career even though it has some bad aspects.
