Put your thinking caps on and solve these puzzles!!

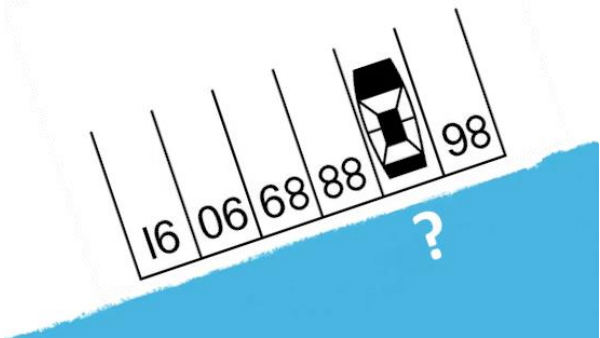

1. A very rich man has many servants in his mansion. One day as he is about to travel, his night watchman warns him not to board his flight. "I had a dream last night that the plane crashed," the watchman tells him. The rich man is annoyed at first, but since he is also superstitious himself, he decides not to take the flight.

Later that day as he is watching the news, he sees that his plane did, in fact, crash. He goes over to thank and reward his servant, and then fires him. Why?

2. You are walking alone on the sidewalk. There are no stars on the sky, no moonlight, all of the lamps on the street are broken, you don't carry any source of light with you and there aren't any cars or other people approaching. A silent black cat tries to cross your way, but you somehow spot it and turn around in order to avoid bad luck. How did you see the cat?
